General Business

State Emergency Service

Welcome to Alex, Greg, Mark, Bill, John and Stephanie from the State Emergency Service, the SES team spoke to residents about the recent floods and what their response was and how calls are prioritised.

The team took questions from residents, which ranged from how information is collected to how SES assets are dispatched.

The SES team engaged discussion around how the SES and residents can work together better to help improve responses to calls, and the handling of information.

Thanks to the SES team for their time and attending the meeting, we look forward to continue to working with the team to improve Greenwell Point.

Greenwell Point Gazette 100th Issue

August 2013 saw the 100th edition of the Greenwell Point Gazette, well done to David Llewellyn, for a fantastic edition, thanks to residents and advertisers in the gazette for your support. Looking forward to another 100 editions.

Workshop with SES

Possible workshop with SES to educate residents on how to prepare for flooding situation, more information to come

GTPP website

Thanks to Garham Bannister, former GP resident, and former editor of the gazette for fixing the website
