Gallery and Craft

Population of Greenwell Point and Terara is 1849 persons, maps are being organised for placement in the display boxes outside the hall and down near the boat ramp and pontoon, a map will also be supplied for the gallery and information centre

Boat Ramp and Fishing Platform

Due to budget constraints, the cleaning frequency of the boat ramp can not be increased, however different cleaning techniques are being trialled to ensure effectiveness with the cleaning

As various people have been injured already at the boat ramp, GTTP to further write to council to advise that this issue needs to be reviewed due to injuries already sustained.

Easter Fete

The easter fete is on 30th March at the School

GTTP website

Thanks to Garham Bannister, former GP resident, and former editor of the gazette for fixing the website

ABC OPEN

ABC OPEN website gives communities the chance to make a short video to promote their towns, this would be worth looking into to promote GP

IGA Opening

IGA supermarket is opening on the corner of Greenwell Point Road and Terara St, the parking area has been created outside the store in Terara St, with the increased traffic that will be turning into Terara St, it is now vital that the Hammerhead Turnaround that was promised by Council be completed.

GTTP to follow up with council

Telstra Site

Verbal approval received from Telstra to establish gardens on the Telstra Site, should have this in writing shortly

Orient Point CCB

Orient Point CCB, Ann Hollis Coates, invitation to Ann to visit GP CCB meeting in April

Meeting closed

Next meeting – 18th April 2013
